

Learning Outcomes Inventory

Personal Development	Spiritual Development and Values- Develop habits for a deepening personal relationship with God. Practice moral decision making and make choices according to your value system.
	Personal Wellness- Become aware of and actively pursue healthy emotional and physical habits and make choices which promote lifelong health.
	Life Skills- Acquire practical skills and experience in the areas of personal finance, home management, career exploration, goal setting and time management, study skills, and other essential life skills.
	Self-Direction- Identify interests, develop passions, set goals, organize ideas, prioritize tasks, and self-reflect.
	Risk and Challenge- Take healthy risks and embrace challenges.
Social Development	Communication- Effectively communicate for understanding, clarity, and purpose.
	Conflict Resolution and Accountability- Identify conflicts, approach confrontation respectfully, discuss solutions, and take responsibility for your own actions.
	Healthy Relationships- Demonstrate love, compromise, and mutual respect when cultivating healthy relationships. Understand individuality within relationships and set healthy boundaries.
	Adaptability and Resourcefulness- Demonstrate flexibility and respond skillfully and promptly when dealing with difficult or unexpected situations.
	Community Involvement- Actively contribute at home, in the community, and the larger world.
Intellectual Development	Reading- Connect with, interpret, and comprehend written language for understanding, information, evaluation, practical application, and pleasure. Gain exposure to and an appreciation for a variety of literary genres.
	Writing- Effectively utilize writing as a tool for communication and self-expression.
	Presentation- Use oral communication, visual aids, and formal presentation skills to effectively articulate purpose.
	Digital Literacy- Effectively find, evaluate, and use digital media to connect, create, and learn in an ethically responsible manner.
	Research and Project Planning- Gather information from a variety of credible sources. Collaborate and manage time and materials effectively. Support inferences and justify conclusions with a meaningful final product.
	Analytical Reasoning and Mathematical Literacy- Examine situations, identify patterns, reason with numbers, and apply mathematical concepts to solve real-world problems.
	Sense of History and Political Awareness- Knowledge of the historical perspectives which have shaped people’s lives and actions in the past. Understand how political systems work in order to be a responsible citizen at the local, national, and global levels.
	Science and Ecological Awareness- Become a curious observer and develop an understanding of and appreciation for the natural world. Employ the scientific method when approaching investigations or conducting experiments.
	Cultural Awareness and Non-native Languages- Awareness and sensitivity toward different cultural values, beliefs, and perceptions. Communication in a non-native language.
	Creativity and the Arts- Utilize the creative process and imagination to bring something new into being. Exploration of the arts (Dance, Music, Theater, Media, and Visual Arts).